College Tour

Juniors

Hurricane High hosted a college tour for the Junior class. Students were able to visit representatives from 11 colleges, universities & trade schools.

Language Arts

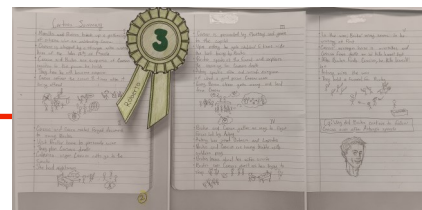

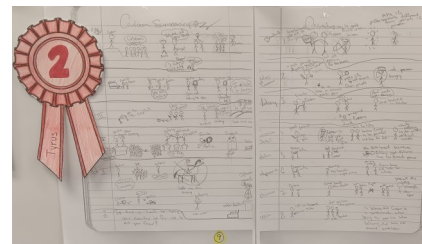

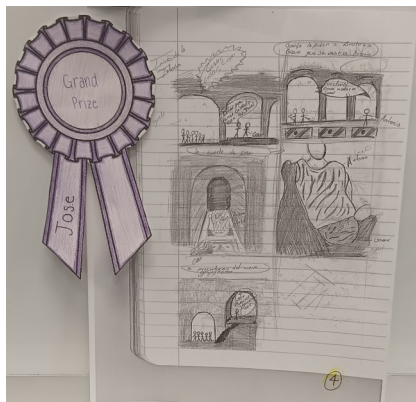

The Daughters of the American Revolution sponsored a scholarship essay contest. Students were required to write a 500 word essay in two hours, answering the question "What are the civic responsibilities of a good citizen and why are these duties, activities and behaviors important to the shaping of the America you hope to experience?" Hurricane High senior, Sarah LeBaron, participated in the competition and won 1st place. She was awarded $100 for her winning entry, and her essay will now be submitted to the state level for judging, where she will have a chance to move on to the national level. Read Sarah's winning essay HERE, and read the full story from the St. George News HERE. Congratulations Sarah for representing yourself, your community and Hurricane High School!

Mrs. Susan Wiese's students recently created cartoon summaries of Julius Caesar.

Besides turning them in to be graded, the students chose their favorites from each class and then voted on top winners.

Grand prize: Jose Patino

1st place: Dax Hirschi

2nd place: Tyrus Smith

3rd place (tie): Roberto Egan and Breanna Gutierrez

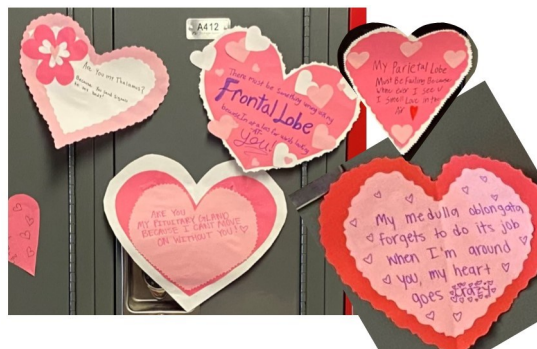

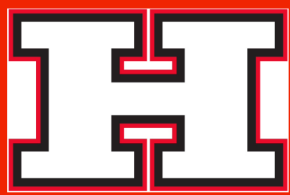

Yael Terrazas, a junior, has taken the initiative to create an English learner tutoring program at HHS. Yael, along with Autumn Seegmiller and Priscila Ortiz, take their own time during TAG on Thursdays, and during lunches to tutor students who are just learning the English language. Setting up the program, creating curriculum, and scheduling facilities has all been spearheaded by Yael. His commitment to helping students in his free time is truly admirable. Read Yael's full mission HERE.

Psychology

During the brain unit in psychology 1, Mrs. Long's amazing psychology students made brain valentines. The cornier, the better! Stop by the lockers by room 104 for a good laugh and to learn what parts of the brain are responsible for.

HHS held its first annual Fine Arts Night on Monday, February 26th. All of Hurricane High's fine arts were represented: Dance, Choir, Orchestra, Band, Painting/Drawing and Ceramics. The evening included performances and displays of the visual arts. Orchestra teacher, Kamille Brooks, enthusiastically stated, "this is an amazing tradition that we have started. It will be the first of many evenings where we get to showcase all of the fine arts at HHS."

Junior, Mason Johnson, received "Best of Show" at this year's Southwest Regional High School Art Show at the St. George Art Museum. This is Hurricane High's second year in a row to take "Best of Show." Go Tigers!

Hurricane High School's 2023-24 Sterling Scholars have been chosen! They will compete at the Southwest Region Sterling Scholar Competition on March 28th. Good luck Tigers!
