My Professional Learning Page - Updated Version

The new version of the “My Professional Learning” page features improved design and more functions for increased productivity.

The screenshot displays the 'My Professional Learning' page. At the top right is a 'PD Catalog' button. Below the page title are two tabs: 'Classes I'm Taking' (selected) and 'Classes I'm Teaching'. A checkbox labeled 'Show historical classes' is present. Two course cards are shown:

- Flashback Understanding and Managing Classroom Behavior – Creating a Resilient Classroom: Course ID 56111, Section ID 90457, Section No. 1, March 12, 2020. Instructor: Haley Hamblin. Location: Kendell Building, PDC East. Status: Enrolled (Entry Date: Mar 12, 2020). Schedule: Mar 12, 2020, 4:00 pm - 5:30 pm. Includes 'View In Catalog' and 'Class Page' buttons, and a 'Withdraw from Class' button.
- Opera by Children Teacher Achievement: Course ID 31680, Section ID 94875, Section No. 5, 2019-2020. Instructors: No instructors specified. Location: No location specified. Status: Enrolled (Entry Date: Jul 12, 2022). Includes 'View In Catalog' and 'Class Page' buttons, and a 'Withdraw from Class' button. A note states: 'This is an asynchronous section. It has no meeting times because it is self-paced.'

- ❖ By default, users will see current classes s/he is registered to take. A toggle switch at the top of the page allows the user to switch to current classes s/he is teaching.
- ❖ In either mode, the user can check a box to include historical courses.

- For classes the user is taking, classes are considered current if the user’s entry date is today or in the future or the user’s status is set to “Enrolled” (as opposed to “Completed” or another terminal status). Waitlisted classes will appear as current as long as the user’s entry date is today or in the future.
- ❖ If users believe they are seeing historical classes as current classes in error, this is most likely because the user’s status was never changed to a terminal status.
- For classes the user is teaching, classes are considered current if the section is asynchronous and the closing date has not yet passed or if the class’s last scheduled meeting date is today or in the future.

My Professional Learning

- ❖ Users will find a button to navigate to the public catalog in the top right corner.

All class listings include:

For a MIDAS account created or any question about the MIDAS courses, please click the " account help "

How do I know if I have a MIDAS account?

If you are a licensed educator currently working with a CACTUS ID and a current assignment in CACTUS, you have an account.

If I am not currently working, how do I know if I have a MIDAS account?

If you were active in 2017 or have had a teaching assignment in a Utah public school since then, you likely have an account.

If I am not an educator, how do I know if I have a MIDAS account?

If you were active (currently working as paraprofessional, teacher's aide, paraeducator, school counselor, school nurse, etc.) in 2017, 2018, 2019, or 2020, you might have an account. To find out and access your account, please submit your request by email to MIDAS@schools.utah.gov with your CACTUS ID and full name.

I am an educator with an expired license currently working for a school or district, do I have a MIDAS account?

If you have a current assignment in CACTUS, yes, you have a MIDAS account. If you were active any time between 2017 and 2020, then you might have an account, even if you do not have a current assignment in CACTUS now.

I am employed by a private school or district as a paraprofessional, teacher's aide, paraeducator, school counselor, school nurse, etc., and I don't have a CACTUS account, but I need access to MIDAS. What do I need to do?

Send a request by email to MIDAS@schools.utah.gov with the following applicable information.

Full legal name

District / charter organization

CACTUS ID #

Email Address

Currently Teaching: Yes/No

Date of Birth (to avoid duplicate account creation)

School

Position

I am an educator with an expired license without an active assignment at a private school or district. Do I have an account?

If you were active in 2017, 2018, 2019, or 2020 you might have an account. To verify, please submit your inquiry to MIDAS@schools.utah.gov.

I clicked the reset link, and I haven't received any email yet. What happened?

The username you enter when requesting to reset your email MUST BE THE SAME as your email address in CACTUS in order to receive a link to reset your password. If it is not, or if you have lost access to th email address in CACTUS, you will need to send a request to MIDAS@schools.utah.gov.

I can't find a course in MIDAS for which I am trying to register. What should I do?

Review the MIDAS interface tutorial (PDF) to understand how to navigate MIDAS, or request assistance by calling the MIDAS help line at 801-538-7807.
