

Never have the Reasons

Always the poet

Never the poem,

Always the photographer

Never the photo,

Always the lover

Never the loved,

Always the artist

Never the muse,

Always a choice

Never the chosen,

Always the reader,

Never the story

It hurts to know that I may never truly have one of my own

I know that I may not get a happy ending but in what world does everyone get a happy ending

Everybody says there is a reason to be alive

Maybe mine is to rot away in my bed looking at my ceiling wondering what the world has to offer but never going out and looking for it
