The Psychology classes of Mrs. Kroff & Mrs. Long got to experience Mr. Tobiasson's "Backwards Bike" during a lesson in brain neuroplasticity. This is MUCH harder than it looks!

Mrs. Long's Psychology 2 class has been learning about the brain and drew giant neurons. Come check them out on the first floor!

Hurricane Valley String Festival

The HHS orchestra has been BUSY this quarter! They hosted the Hurricane Valley String Festival here from February 26th-27th. SUU professor, Dr. Sun, came to help the students prepare for their Region competition. Thirty musicians are currently practicing for the pit orchestra that will accompany the Theater Department's production of The Little Mermaid (see dates & times below).

Ambush

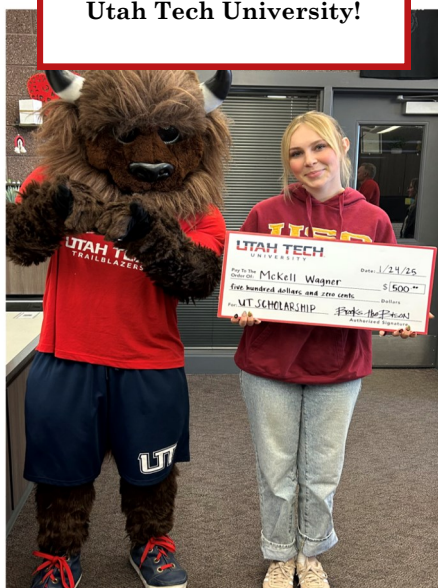

The 2025 "Snowball" was hosted by the Ambush club on February 22nd.

Ambush Brings Hollywood Magic to Snowball 2025

The Ambush Club stepped up in style to present Snowball Goes to Hollywood 2025, transforming the night into a cinematic celebration. Students had a blast dancing under the lights, enjoying classic movies, munching on popcorn, and soaking in the glamorous Hollywood-themed atmosphere. It was a night to remember, filled with fun, friends, and film-inspired festivities!

Congratulations to McKell Wagner who received a $500 scholarship from Utah Tech University!

Congratulations to Emily Stewart who was just named Miss Hurricane!

AP Calculus enjoyed the last day before Spring break by doing analysis of rates of sand being pulled away from the beach & the rate at which a machine was adding sand to the beach.

Congratulations to TWO of our Debate teams who qualified for NATIONALS!

Esther Wright and Reyna Angulo in Public Forum.

Lincoln Oringdolph and Bailey Willard in Policy.

Good luck in June!

SCHOOL OF LIFE

School of Life session #2 was a huge success. Taught 3 times a year after school for 4 classes, by Mrs. Long and Mr. Neeley. We learn some great organizational life skills, make new friendships and have great snacks. Our next session begins in April. If you are interested, go talk to your counselor to sign up.
